

Week 5: Genesis 9–10

1. How did man's relationship with animals change after the Flood?
2. What was the punishment for homicide before Genesis 9:5, and what was the punishment after?
3. Who was Nimrod?
4. Many Palestinian Arabs have given up their heritage in which line (Ham, Shem, or Japheth) in exchange for association with which line (Ham, Shem, or Japheth)?
5. What was the legacy of Noah's cursed son, Kena'an?
6. Why did God say that man cannot eat the blood from an animal?
7. What were the Noachide Laws, and why were they important?
8. Why is the story of Noah becoming drunk included in the Bible?
9. Name the three sons of Noah, their blessing or curse, and the general area where their descendants live today.
10. When did the blessings and curses found in Genesis 9 end?
11. One of God's patterns that we've seen throughout Genesis is that He divides, elects, and separates. Give three examples of ways you have seen this so far.

12. What were the two components of the firstborn blessing? What unique action did Noah take when giving his sons the blessing?

JOURNALING TOPICS:

1. What did you find most interesting about the modern-day descendants of Noah's sons?
2. Explain how the Great Flood in the OT was a shadow of the Living Water in the NT.
